LEGION PLANS RIGID INQUIRY OF HOSPITAL

Bronx County Also Asked to Investigate Charges of Brutality.

A general investigation into conditions at the United States Veterans' Hospital 81, Kingsbridge road and Sedgwick avenue, The Bronx, is likely to follow the disclosure of an alleged attack upon one of the patients by two attendants who have been arrested and held for examination on a charge of learned that plans are being made for o thorough inquiry. The two attendants, Timothy J. Luccle and Harry J. Morgan, were arraigned in the Morrisania Court yesterday, and held in $1,000 bail for a hearing on Wednesday. It was understood that when they are next arraigned they will me found over to the Federal conspirators.

Nicholas B. Samson, a veteran of the Spanish-American and world wars, was reported yesterday to be recovering slowly from his injuries, although an examination disclosed two broken ribs, a broken wrist, blackened eyes and abrasions on the head. His condition is not serious, although he was weakened abrasions on the head. His condition is not serious, although he was weakened greatly by the assault, and his chances of improvement considerably lessened. His malady was a general paresis, which caused softening of the bones and made him susceptible to rough treatment. M. P. McInerney, chief investigator of the United States Veterans' Burcau in Washington, declared it was one of the most "outrageous cases" he ever had investigated.

dom" of the oil industry is "responsible for violent fluctuations in demand and for violent fluctuations in demand and supply which have led those unacquainted with the industry to attribute the frequent rapidity of price movement to causes other than the fundamental uncertainties of the situation itself."

That is the explanation of the rise, and occasional fall, in the price of gasoline, published yesterday by R. L. Welch, secretary of the American Petroleum Institute. He continued:

"Fram 1859 to 1906 the year in which arrived arrive

secretary of the American Petroleum Institute. He continued:
"From 1859 to 1906, the year in which the consumption of petroleum and its products besage to show a marked increase, the total production in this country amounted to 1,640,000,000 barrels.
"During the last two and a half years, from January, 1920, to June, 1922, the production of off in the United States and Mexico was about 1,660,000,000 barrels, or only 2.4 per cent. less than the quantity produced here during the forty-seven years between 1859 and 1906."

The trouble is, he said, that the public is accustomed to think of the oil industry in the light of conditions prevailing in 1906.

UTILITIES COMMISSIONERS POSTPONE CONVENTION

So Many Made Administrators They Cannot Get Away.

The National Association of Railway and Utilities Commissioners announced yesterday that its annual convention, set for September 26, has been postponed because of the coal strike.

The meeting will be November 14 in Detroit. James B. Walker, secretary, explained that so many commissioners had been appointed fuel administrators that it was decided their duties during September would not permit of their attending.

FLYING TAUGHT TO 500.

General interest in the practical side of aeronautics is indicated in the announcement vesterday by the Aeronautical Chamber of Commerce of America that about 500 civilians are now taking courses in flying at aviation fields here and at Chicago, Dayton, San Francisco and at other fields. Four thousand inquiries have been received at the Dayton Weicht field this summer.
